Century Village Museum is an 1800's Western Reserve settlement with 65 acres, and 22 historical structures staged with artifacts. The Geauga County Historical Society is tasked with the upkeep of this hidden gem.

We are NOT government funded and we rely solely on memberships, donations, events and fundraisers. Please help us keep history alive so that we may continue to host the many families, children, schools and history lovers from all over.

Keep this top portion and check throughout May for a list of winners on our website www.centuryvillagemuseum.org or call 440-834-1492

IF MAILING FORM IN please include the bottom portion along with a check and mail to GCHS, PO Box 153, Burton Ohio 44021
